

Idaho State B.A.S.S. Federation Meeting

Date: January 20, 2000

Time: 7:30 PM

Conservation:

Rick Cox submitted a design for the Bass Life Cycle signs to be placed around Lake Lowell. Modifications to be made before final design to be approved.

Youth:

No Larry Raganit, not report. Allan Reminded everyone about the "Get Hooked On Fishing Not On Drugs" program on Feb. 5th and 6th at Karcher Mall in Nampa. The BBB will be holding two Casting Kids events. Show up at 8 AM on Sat. to help with setup.

Banquet:

4-6 PM Statewide meeting and conference, open to all.

6-7 PM Social Hour, to mingle and swap fishing stories.

7-? PM Dinner followed by prize give a-ways and dancing to the DJ.

Everything is on track. Need head count by Monday so Allan can call the Elks and let them know how many to expect.

Communications:

James Raitter reported that the Idaho State B.A.S.S. Federation is up and running. The person in charge of the web site is Steve Day from the Snake River Bassmasters. The Address for the web site is www.bassclubs.net/clubpages/idahofed please visit and send Steve and e-mail with suggestions and corrections. The dead line for newsletter articles and ads is the first week of February.

Owyhee Meeting Highlights:

The area is administered from Farewell Bend OR.

The Owyhee area is now under Oregon State Parks Rules and Regs.

Must have Park permit to have any type of gathering

Permits obtained from Oregon Parks and Rec. Dept.

Ask to waive the permit fees.

Another Meeting is scheduled for later in February.

Expo:

Everything is on schedule. The Federation to hold Casting Kids Finals at 2 PM on Sunday. Contact James Raitter or Denny Burrow for info

National Sponsorship:

Plano asked if we want their sponsorship to go to the state team or to the Federation anglers. A vote was taken and the sponsorship will be for the Federation anglers.

Old Business:

It was voted to send one dollar for each federation member to join Friends Of Brownlee. The will be sent in from the official roster in April.

Other Business:

Bill Horton and Dale Allen from Idaho Fish & Game showed up to show their support of the Idaho State B.A.S.S. Federation. They were also there to try and resolve a tournament scheduling conflict. There was no resolve.